B/ Key term definition

Autocratic Leadership

In this style, the leader makes decisions unilaterally, with little input from team members. They have tight control over the team and its activities.

Democratic Leadership

Democratic leaders involve team members in the decision-making process. They seek input, ideas, and feedback from the team, ultimately making decisions based on a consensus or majority agreement.

Transformational Leadership

Transformational leaders inspire and motivate their teams through a shared vision. They encourage creativity and innovation and are known for their charisma and ability to inspire trust and loyalty.

Transactional Leadership

Transactional leaders focus on task completion and use a system of rewards and punishments to motivate team members. They emphasize clear expectations, structure, and adherence to rules and regulations.

Servant Leadership

Servant leaders prioritize the needs and development of their team members. They focus on serving others and helping them reach their full potential, often leading by example.

Laissez-Faire Leadership

Laissez-faire leaders provide a high degree of autonomy to team members, allowing them to make decisions and manage their tasks independently. They provide guidance when necessary but generally avoid micromanaging.

Charismatic Leadership

Charismatic leaders rely on their personal charm and charisma to influence and inspire their teams. They are often dynamic and persuasive speakers.

Situational Leadership

Situational leaders adapt their leadership style based on the specific situation or needs of the team. They may switch between different leadership styles depending on the circumstances.

Coaching Leadership

Coaching leaders focus on the long-term development and growth of team members. They provide guidance, feedback, and support to help individuals improve their skills and achieve their goals.

Visionary Leadership

Visionary leaders have a clear and compelling vision for the future and inspire their teams to work towards that vision. They focus on aligning team members with a shared purpose.
